Kurt Schwarz Bio

Kurt Schwarz is the Executive Director and founder of Inspire Sports Camps, a Gospel-focused sleep-away sports camp for inner-city kids from across the Northeast. Born and raised in NJ, his heart for ministry was formed as a camp counselor, youth director, and then as a leader at some of the largest Christian camps in the country. He has a B.A. in Biblical Literature and Certificate in Youth Ministry from Taylor University, and an M.A. in Urban Education from New Jersey City University. Kurt taught English as a second language and coached high school football and track for over a decade in North Jersey. He also serves as the volunteer Pastor of outreach for Calvary Chapel North Jersey. Kurt and his wife, Marcela, have three daughters.
